- The Yugoslav Fourth Army has been alerted and prepared for military action. Troops have drawn the battle issue of amunition, which they are required to carry at all times. Practice alerts are held every few nights, and all military leaves have been cancelled. All officers are required to be constantly with their troops. Enlisted men sleep fully clothed.
- 2. Recruits from the class of 1929 have currently been called up to complete a regular tour of duty. The Yugoslav authorities are preparing to call to active service all reservists in the classes 1909 to 1915, inclusive, and many military specialists have already been called up.
- 3. A conference was held in Ljubljana, during the last days of October, for all general and field grade officers of all units in the Fourth Army.
- · 4. Officers and enlisted men of the Fourth Army are reportedly demoralized and fear an impending conflict. They feel that they have no ally, and that they would stand alone in the event of hostilities.
- 5. An unidentified Tank Division which was sent to Vojvodina for September maneuvers has recently returned to Radovljica.
